Distance Learning Guidelines

Thank you for purchasing "Ripped from the Headlines: How does the planning profession instill public confidence in planning and zoning in light of alleged corrupt activities by public officials". This program has been approved by the AICP for 1.5 Ethics Certificate Maintenance (CM) credits.

The APA-NJ is distributing this continuing education program according to AICP guidelines for a "Distance Learning Program". As such, the purchaser must comply with the following in order to obtain CM credits:

- The program must be viewed and credits reported by the purchaser on their AICP CM web-log by June 30, 2010.
- Upon completion of the program, the viewer must complete and submit the attached survey.
- Upon completion of the program, the viewer must complete an essay in response to the following question (not to exceed 1 page):

How can NJAPA apply the AICP Code of Ethics to influence New Jersey Statewide planning policies, including but not limited to, planning process, State Professional Planner licensing, as well as the overall way planners should practice and interface with government clients/employers?

- Please submit the survey and essay to APA- NJ, PO Box 813, New Brunswick, NJ 08903 or by email to office@njapa.org

The APA-NJ will maintain a list of program viewers, as well as a file of survey and essay responses, which the AICP may audit from time to time. It is incumbent upon the viewer to ensure they have submitted all requested information to the APA-NJ and reported the CM credits per the above requirements.

Please note that the DVD containing "Ripped from the Headlines: How does the planning profession instill public confidence in planning and zoning in light of alleged corrupt activities by public officials" is intended ONLY for the use of the purchaser, and may not be transmitted, reproduced or transferred to any other individual or organization unless given express written permission to do so by the APA-NJ. The reporting of CM credits is governed by the AICP Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct.

Should this DVD not perform properly in a standard computer set-up, it can also be viewed on any standard home DVD player.
